SYNOPSIS CONTINUED -

Stated that following the assassination of President KENNEDY she saw pictures of the person accused as the assassin and said that he was identical with the person who was on the bus. WALTER COWAN, Managing Editor of the New Orleans States Item, recalls receiving a telephone call from Mrs. WYLIE sometime in the past during which she spoke about two Cubans on a bus. He said that she imagines things and he has come to have no reliance on information furnished by her. CONNIE T. KAYE said that in 5/63, or as far back as 9/62, she recalled Mrs. WYLIE using her phone saying she was going to call the FBI because she met a "red from Cuba" on the bus. Miss KAYE said that on one occasion, date unrecalled, she was chided by an individual while she was having a cup of coffee in the Bourbon House for anti-Castro comments she made as an entertainer at her place of employment, Pat O'Brien's Bar. When she saw OSWALD on television she though he was familiar and after four days of watching television she recalled that he was identical with the man who chided her in the Bourbon House. She asked Mrs. WYLIE whether this might be the same man she saw on the bus and Mrs. WYLIE was unable to say whether this was the same man.
